PLAINTIFF’S CONSENT MOTION TO DISMISS DEFENDANTS NICELY, SCHENCKS, and METTA

NOW COMES the Plaintiff, Pat Godin, by and through her counsel, and with the consent of all defendants, and pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(a)(1)(2), voluntarily moves for dismissal of Defendants Nicely, Schencks, and Metta from this action, with prejudice and without costs, including all claims that were or could have been brought by Plaintiff against them in this action.

Plaintiff has decided that she no longer desires to sue Defendants Nicely, Schencks, and Metta and wants to voluntarily dismiss all claims against them, with prejudice and without costs, in order to avoid any further litigation with them. In exchange, these Defendants have agreed to waive and not seek recovery of their defense costs and attorneys’ fees from Plaintiff pursuant to Maine’s anti-SLAPP statute, 14 M.R.S.A. §556.

WHEREFORE, with the consent of all parties, Plaintiff voluntarily asks the Court to dismiss Defendants Nicely, Schencks, and Metta from this action with prejudice and without costs.
